THE ELECTION.

The great Presidential election of 1892 is over. It is too early to attempt minuto details of the result. Enough is known, however, to forecast the election of the Democratic candidates beyond any serious doubt.

New York, Connecticut, Delaware and New Jersey are Democratic. Returns are too scant to predict the result in West Virginia or Indiana, but Democratic indications are favorable.

Illinois has cut loose from Republican moorings and seven Michigan votes are in the same category. Wisconsin, Montana and Washington are also believed to be safe for Cleveland.

The Republican column is further broken by the Populists, who claim to have carried Kansas, Nebraska, the Dakotas, Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming, four votes in Minnesota and one each in Michigan and Oregon.

The smoke still lingers on the battlefield, but with the tide setting so strongly against the Republicans it is easy to argue a Democratic landslide of unprecedented proportions. When the situation cools down it will be time to discuss the causes of the slide.

CLEVELAND VOTES.

A Republican Heeler Attempts to Chal-lenge Him and is Hustled.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- [Special]-Ex-President Cleveland left his house at 10:25 o'clock this morning. He walked to the polling place accompanied by his butler, William P. Sinclair, and George F. Parker. It was 40:30 o'clock when they reached the polling place, 876 Sixth avenue.

There were twenty-five men in line ahead of the ex-President, They recog-nized him, and, raising their hats,

When Mr. Cleveland stepped up to the poll clerk and gave his name a Re-publican attempted to challenge his vote, but was quickly hustled out of the way

Mr. Cleveland received a bunch of ballots marked No. 186 and went into a booth to select his ticket. It took him just six minutes to prepare his tickets. They were in proper order, and as soon as they were deposited in their respective boxes the ex-President went home.

Vice-Fresident Sands Returns.

J. H. Sands, vice-president and general manager of the Norfolk and Western, and A. C. Hippey, general superintendent, have just returned from an inspection tour over the line from Norfolk to Bristol. From Bristol they went to Bluefield, and from that point over the Scioto Valley extension to Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Kimball, Mr. J. I. Doran and Mr. Charles H. Mellon, assistant to President Kimball, went East from Columbus to Philadelphia by way of Pittaburg over the Pennsylvania railroad, in Norfolk and Western special car No. 4 and Pullman car "Iolanthe." Mr. Sands and Mr. Hippey came east on special car No. 2, arriving in Roanoke at 12:30.

The Patient Was Grateful.

Bent Baird, the young man who was so badly injured on the railroad a couple of weeks ago, and who has been at the Home for the Sick, left yesterday for his home in Pennsylvania. He was seen at the depot by a Times reporter and ex pressed himself in the most favorable and complimentary terms at the treat-ment he had received at the bands of the attendants and nurses while there.

Still Another Robbery.

The residence of Levi Wood, in the Meirose addition, was entered Monday night by thieves and a lot of clothing and two valuable rings were stolen. An entrance was effected by forcing open the kitchen door. It is useless to say the real way also to the paragraphys of there is no clue to the perpetrators of Mr Skinker's Condition. The condition of ex-Councilman J. H. Skinker at 3 o'clock this morning was practically unchanged. Ho is just as low as he can be and still live.

The Weather.

Forecast for Virginia: Generally fair, warmer Thursday morning, northwest winds, showers Wednesday night.

A triangle was formed ex-tending from a point on East avenue to the middle of Fourth street, thence to the middle of Fourth street, thence in a northerally direction for 200 feet up Fourth. The whites formed a triangle on the same Knes on the inner space. There has probably never been seen in Roanoke such a large and heterogeneous mass at a polling place, striving to exercise the constitutional right of sufficient. A steady stream recording and ercise the constitutional right of suf-frage. A steady stream poured in, and the vote was heavy until 3 o'clock. At 4 p. m. the crowd had dwindled away, and it was claimed that about 1,350 votes had been cast, with a balance on the Republican side of the ledger of 300. Officers Eanes and Eubank said that it had been the most quiet election they had ever known, even the prover-bial drunken man being absent. At 4:30 p. m. the street was nearly de-serted, some of the few locals discussing the situation. the situation.

It was reported early in the morning that two arrests had been made, one negro for trying to work a two-ward racket, and another one for wanting to vote early here so as to vote later in Danville. However, no arrests were reported at police headquarters. At 5:02 the polls closed with 1:003 votes cast. The judges of election were N. F. McNamare, Henry Bohn and George Duiguid. The supervisors were R. F. Boswell and C. S. White.
